An tEarrach Glantach

Croitheadh ó bhonn muid nuair a tháinig Geimhreadh na daonnachta.
Dhruid muid ár ndorais
agus ghabh muid ár n-anáil
Le haghaidh an tséasúir,
Ag amharc, ag éisteacht, ag déanamh
ár seacht míle ndícheall
Lenár nguaillí a chur le chéile
Leis an fhód a sheasamh.

Lúcháireach a bheas muid nuair a thiocfas An tEarrach glantach.
Rachaidh muid amach arís
De thairbhe tharraing an earraigh,
Glacadh an fháinleog ar ais
's a glór lán de ghealltanais dhóchasacha dúinn.
Osclóidh muid ár gcroí le chéile
Ar mhaithe le gile na gréine go luath.

John O'Donohue

This is the time to be slow,
Lie low to the wall
Until the bitter weather passes.

Try, as best you can, not to let
The wire brush of doubt
Scrape from your heart
All sense of yourself
And your hesitant light.

If you remain generous,
Time will come good;
And you will find your feet
Again on fresh pastures of promise,
Where the air will be kind
And blushed with beginning.
